

Captions of Illustrations

Figure 1 – General location of the sites discussed in the text.

Figure 2 - Geometric and quasi-geometric settings (from Chanter and Worth 1905; 1906).

Figure 3 - Figure 3 – Minilithic settings on Exmoor (A – Porlock stone row; B- Porlock Circle (c) Barry Hitchcox; C – Lanacombe I) by author unless otherwise stated.

Figure 4 – the Copney circles (after Foley and MacDonagh 1998).

Figure 5 – the Beaghmore monuments (after May and Mitchell 1953; Burl 1976).

Figure 6 – Stackpole Warren (A – plan of stone settings (after Benson et al. 1990); B – the stones of the setting; C – the line of rounded boulders (from Benson et al. 1990)).

Figure 7 – Plan of Battle Moss stone rows and 2003 excavation (after Dryden, H. and Shearer, R.T. 1871 Battle Moss, Loch of Yarrows, plan of stones with measurements and annotations (Canmore item SC604350) & Baines et al. 2003, figure 46).

Figure 8 – The ‘boat-shaped’ spreads (A – Miskin; B - Mynnd Llangyndeyrn 17; C - Lanacombe II (after Williams 1988; Gillings 2013)).

Figure 9 – Rhos-y-Clegyrn Period II (after Lewis 1966, figure 2; 1975, figure 3).

Figure 10 – Location plan of the Lanacombe Settings.

Figure 11 – Plans of the settings discussed in the text (after Quinnell and Dunn 1992).

Figure 12 –Schematic profile of Lanacombe I showing relative heights of uprights.

Figure 13 – Furzehill Common (A) and Lanacombe IV (B) photographs by author.

Figure 14 – Plan of Porlock Circle.

Figure 15 – Miniliths (shaded), ‘triggers’ and packing stones encountered at Porlock Circle.

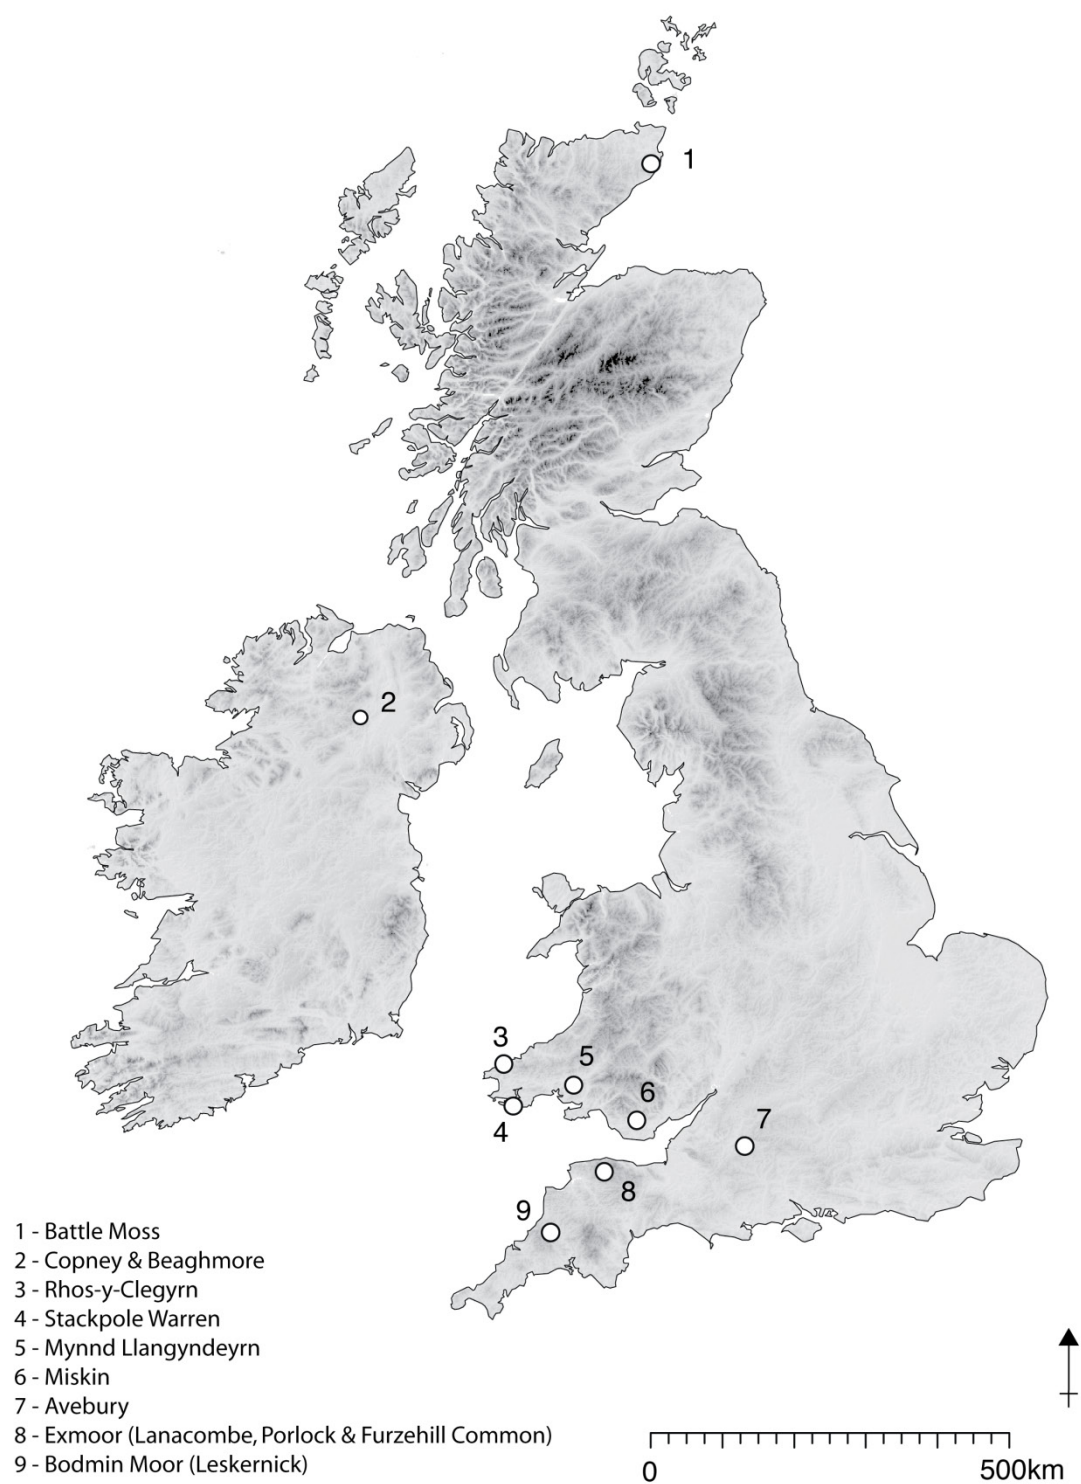

Figure 1 – General location of the sites discussed in the text.

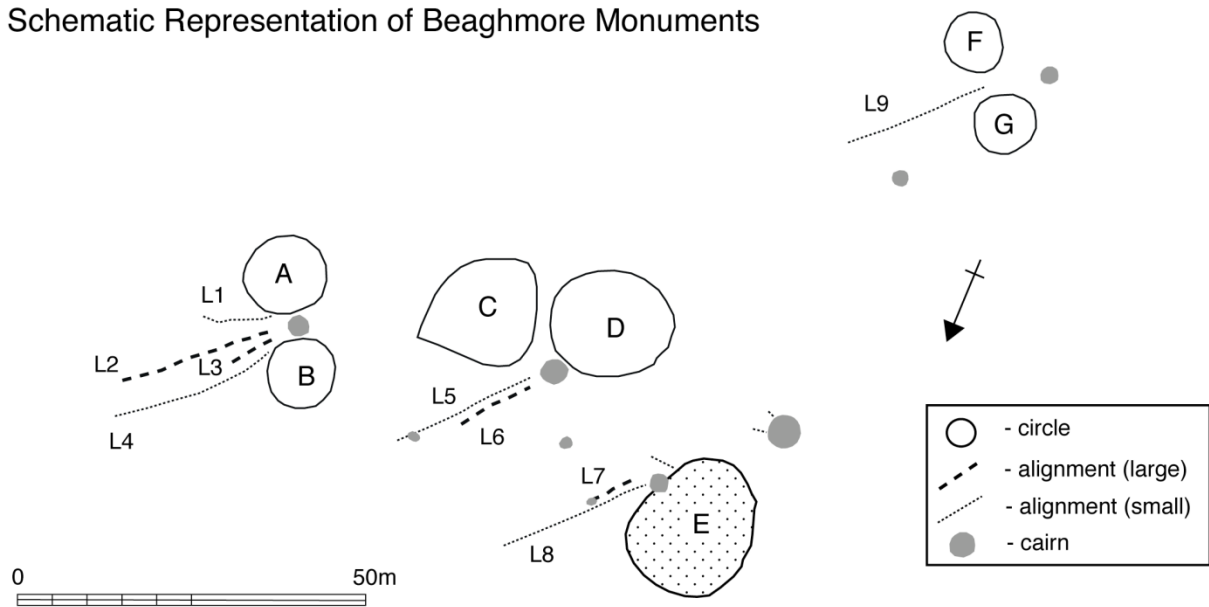

Figure 4 – the Copney circles (after Foley and MacDonagh 1998).

Schematic Representation of Beaghmore Monuments

Circle E

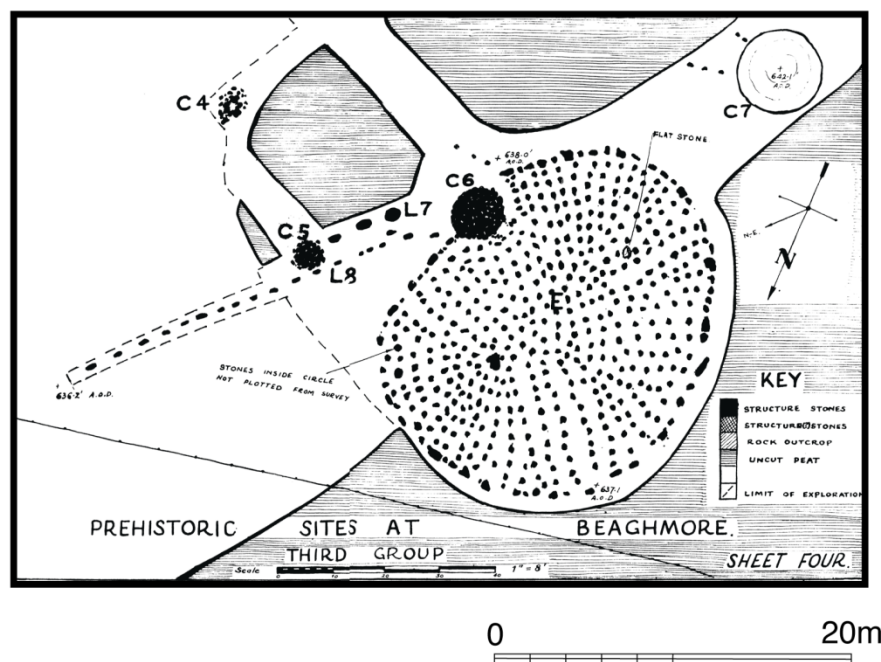

Figure 5 – the Beaghmore monuments (after May and Mitchell 1953; Burl 1976).

Figure 6 – Stackpole Warren (A – plan of stone settings; B – the stones of the setting; C – the line of rounded boulders (from Benson et al. 1990)).

Figure 7 – Plan of Battle Moss stone rows and 2003 excavation (after Dryden, H. and Shearer, R.T. 1871 Battle Moss, Loch of Yarrows, plan of stones with measurements and annotations (Canmore item SC604350) & Baines et al. 2003 Figure 46).

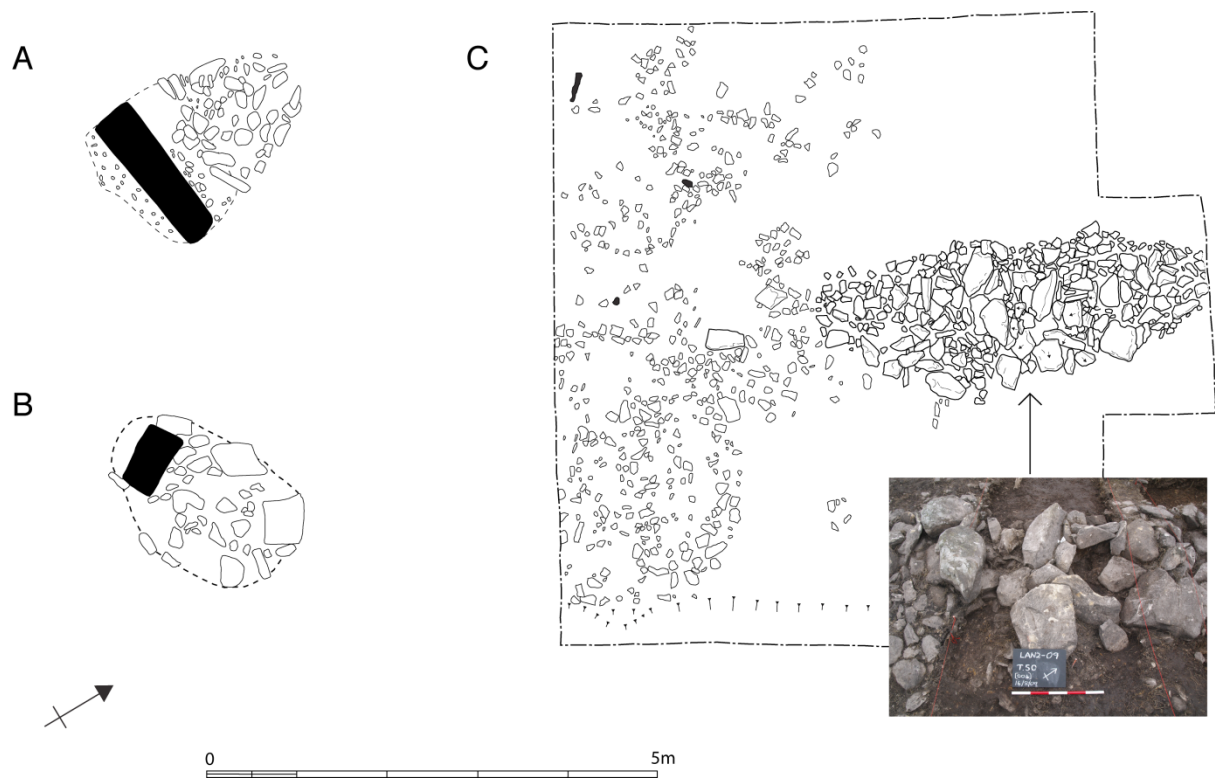

Figure 8 – The ‘boat-shaped’ spreads (A – Miskin; B - Mynnd Llangyndeyrn 17; C - Lanacombe II (after Williams 1988; Gillings 2013)).

RHOS-Y-CLEGYRN, ST. NICHOLAS, PEMBS., 1962-8.

PERIOD II

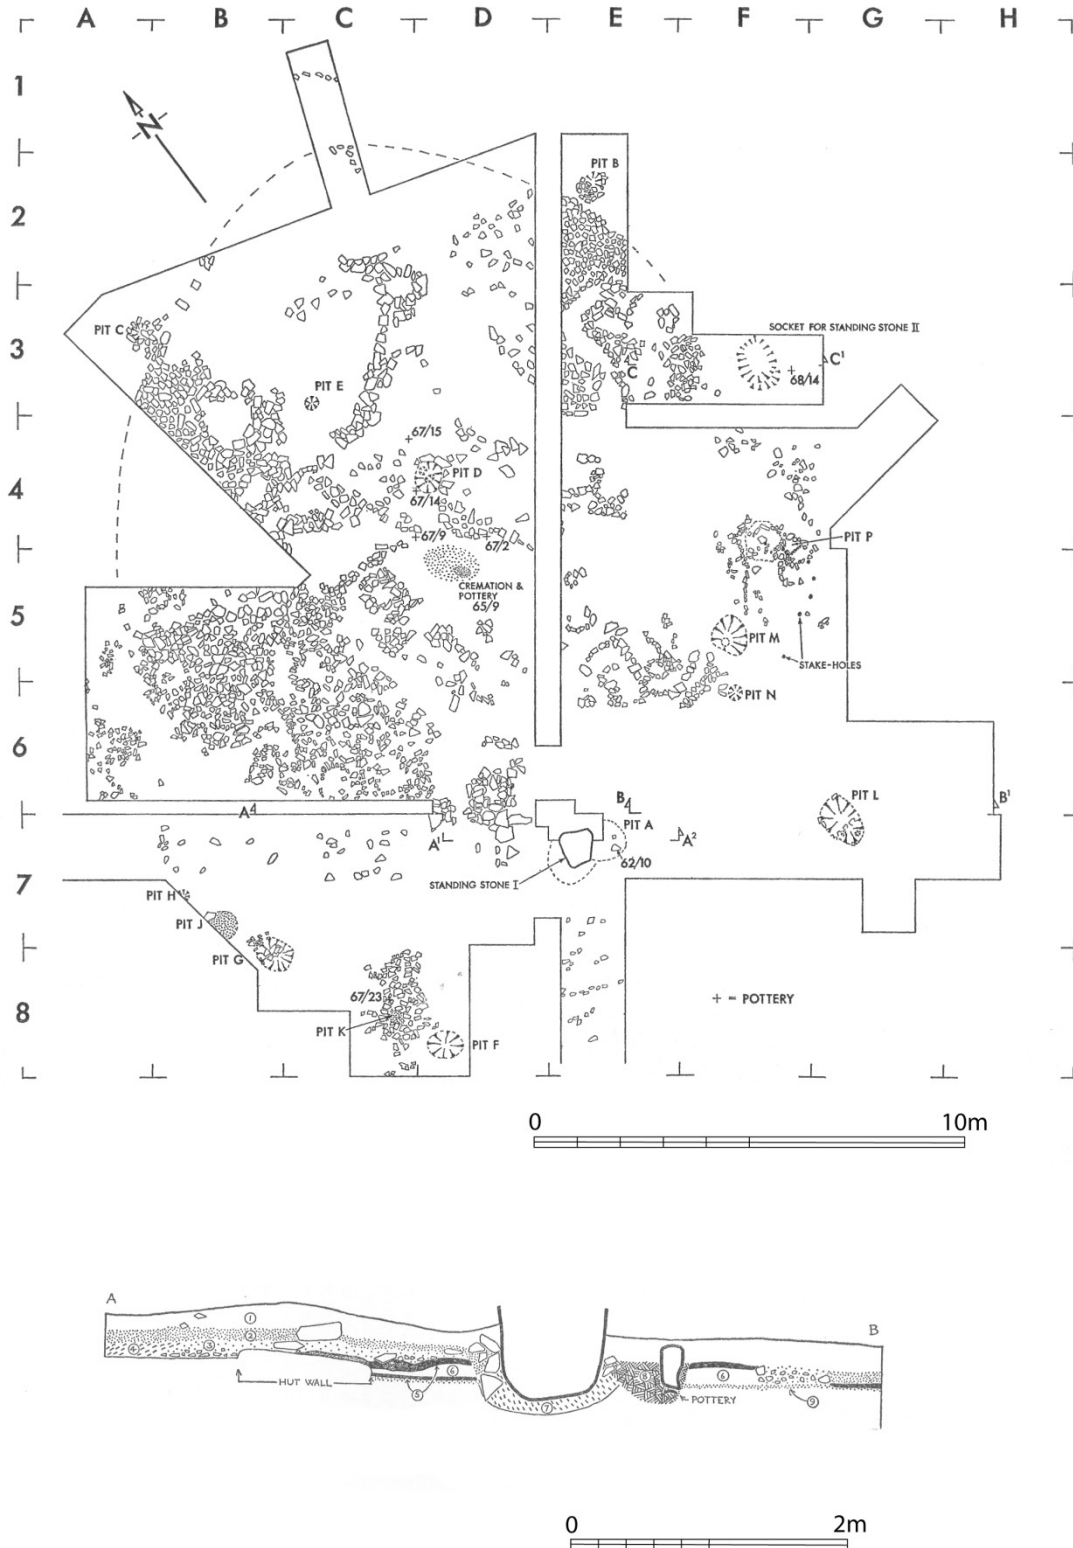

Figure 9 – Rhos-y-Clegyrn (from Lewis 1966).

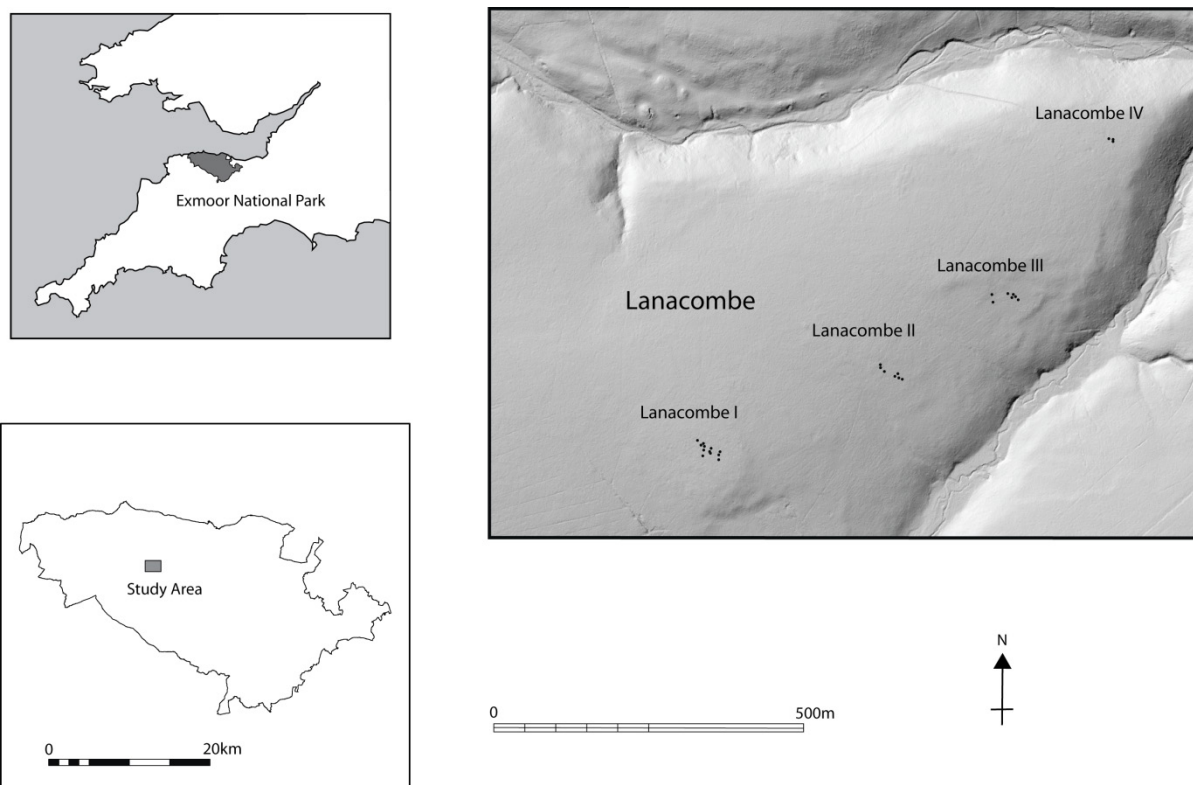

Figure 10 – Location plan of the Lanacombe settings.

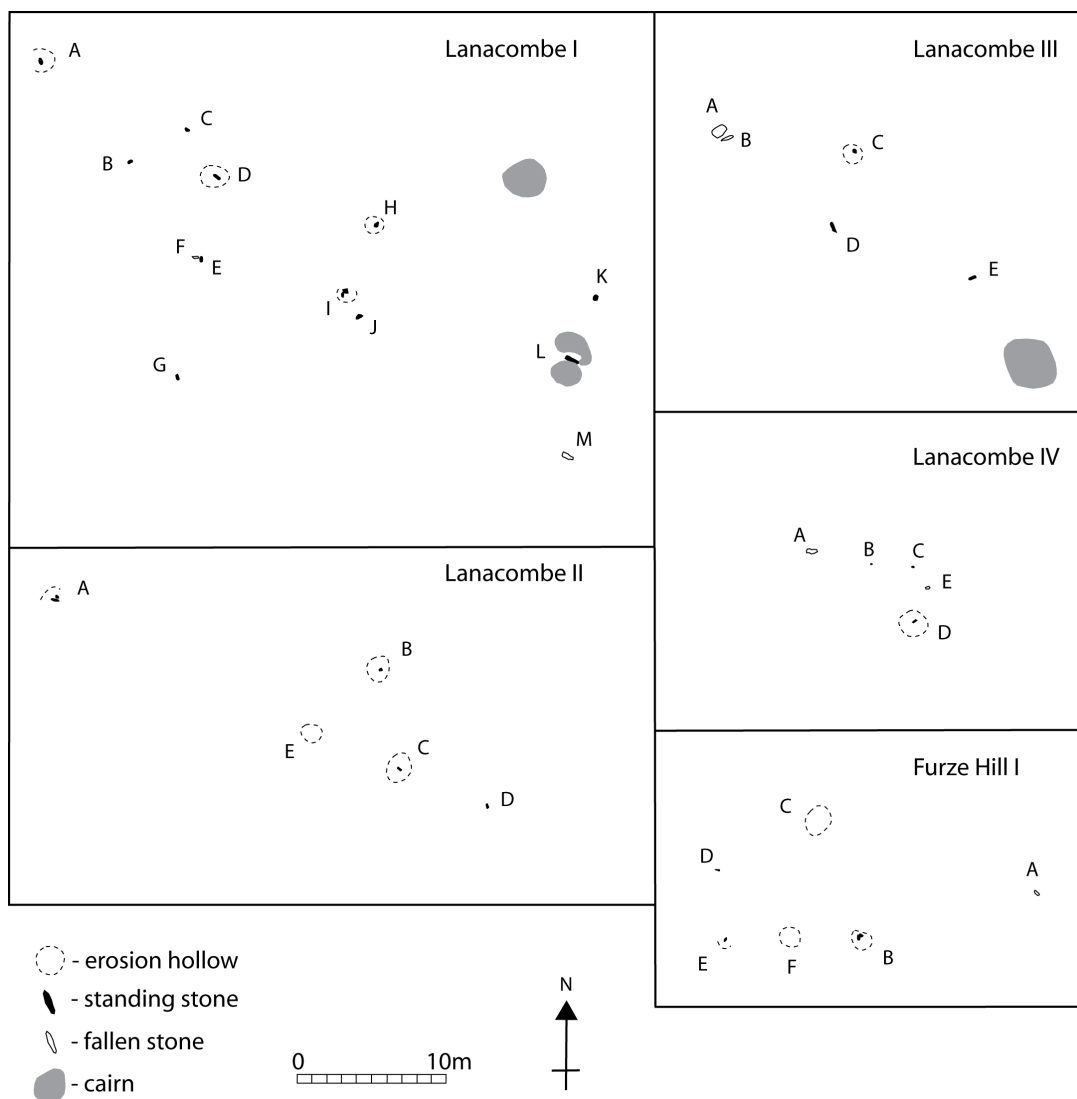

Figure 11 - Plans of the settings discussed in the text (after Quinnell and Dunn 1992).

Figure 12 –Schematic profile of Lanacombe I showing relative heights of uprights.

Figure 13 – Furzehill Common (A) and Lanacombe IV (B).

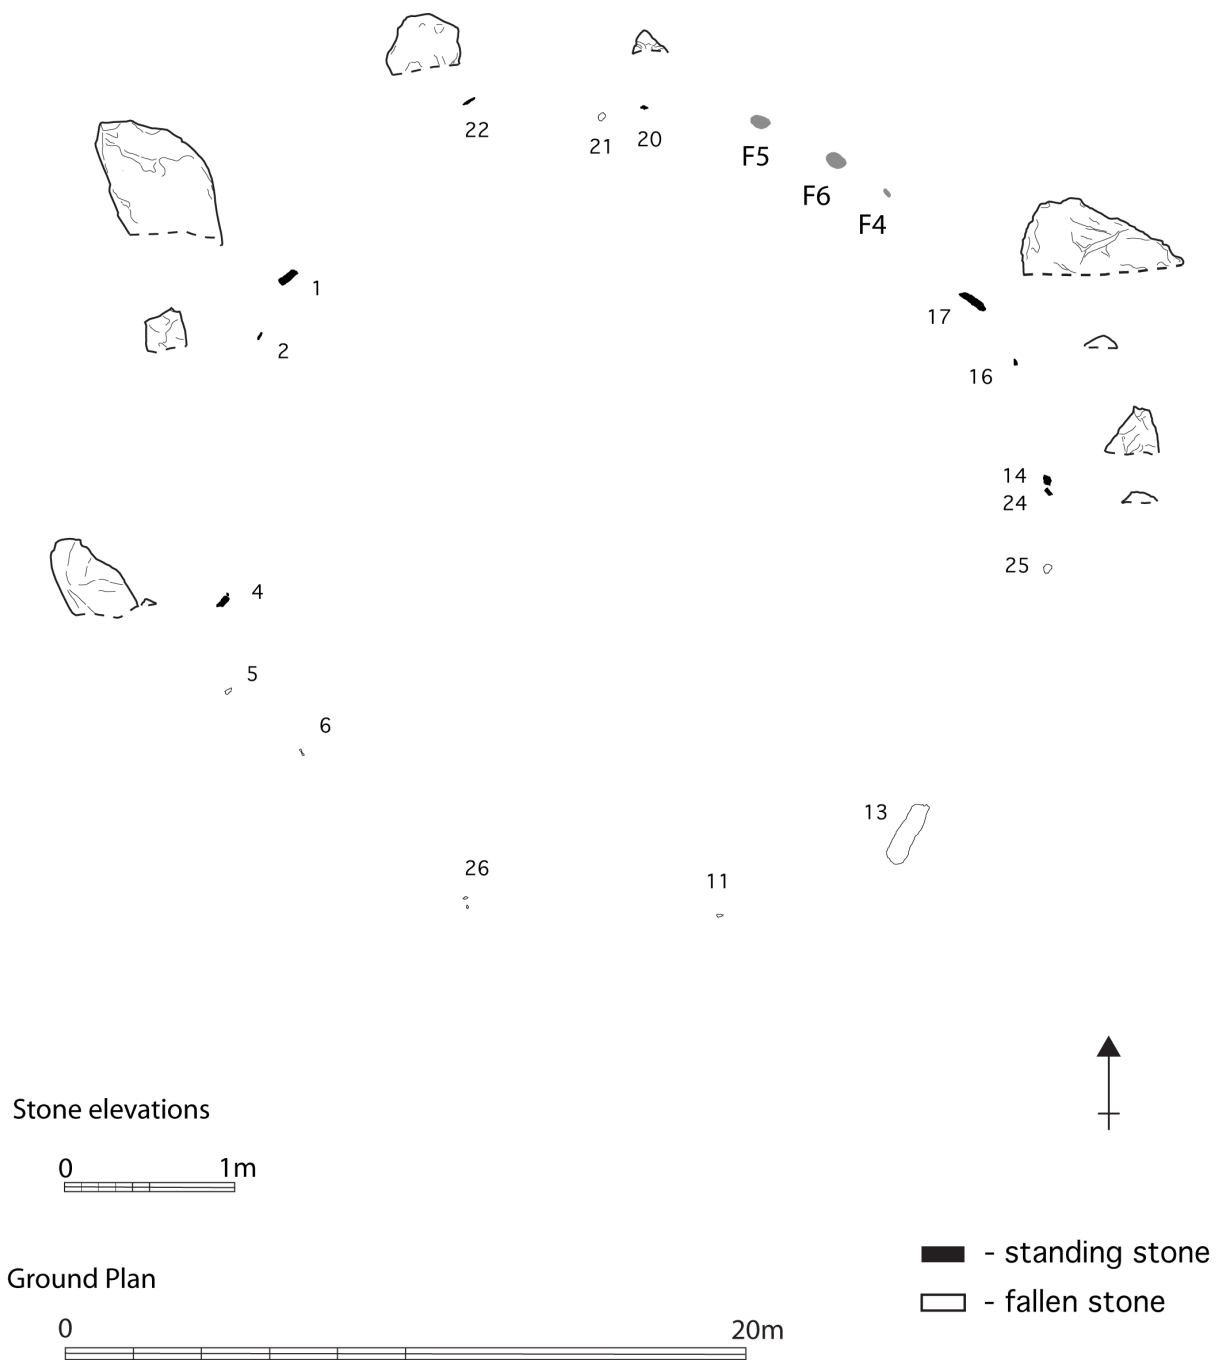

Figure 14 – Plan of Porlock Circle.

Figure 15 – Miniliths (shaded), ‘triggers’ and packing stones encountered at Porlock Circle.